DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

[From the National Intelligencer.]

THE CONSTITUTION VINDICATED.

For more than seventy years it was the custom of all our public men to speak reverently of the Constitution. The statesmen who framed it were held in especial honor. Each of the two great parties claimed that it most strictly and faithfully adhered to the provisions of the instrument. It was our national boast abroad and at home that America was the only land possessing a written organic law, which seemed to embody the highest human wisdom, a law to serve as a guide and a check in seasons of difficulty, and within the limits of which the country might advance in its grand career of progress, power and rational liberty.

Lately, however, men near by, representing, however imperfectly, the legislative branch of the Government, deliberately and shamelessly avowing their contempt for this instrument, and insolently claiming a right to act outside of its provisions.

The organs of this Congress have abounded in essays to show how our noble Constitution was obsolete, unsuited to the times, and ridiculing the very idea of setting it up any longer as a standard and a limitation. It was arrogantly claimed by these revolutionists that the American people themselves were prepared, and even anxious, for this abandonment. And we have seen a body of statutes framed in such utter and palpable disregard of this Constitution, that the leader of the House of Representatives has expressly stated that it was agreed by his party to act outside of the Constitution; that that instrument had been "repudiated" by them, otherwise their proceedings, as he says, would have been a sheer usurpation. This broad and emphatic statement has been suffered to pass hitherto unchallenged by the co-actors in this business as a true exposition of the principles and aims by which the whole of them were guided in framing the reconstruction laws.

And yet these very Congressmen, thus avowedly "repudiating" the Constitution, had one and all of them taken a solemn oath to "support" it when they took their seats. It was, therefore, a false oath which they took; and yet, in other statutes, these same men were well pleased to consider perjury as a crime, and to affix penalties upon those who practised it.

The only pretence of respect for the Constitution on the part of these men, that we now recall, is their claim to impeach the President upon the assumption that in his proceedings, with respect to reconstruction, he had acted outside of the Constitution, although it is perfectly obvious that if the Constitution bound him it bound them also, and no less firmly. These men have no patent of nobility, either from God or from man. They have no more right to trample on or "repudiate" the Constitution than the humblest citizen in the land.—When they do this they become criminals, and are liable to punishment as such.

But they did not thus reason. Bloated with pride and arrogance, they choose to assume that the people of the Country were willing to surrender the charter of their liberties in order to invest them with unlimited powers, so that their sovereign will and pleasure should stand for law. From this pleasant dream of unlicensed and unbridled power, we imagine they have been somewhat rudely awakened. The great re action at the polls must now give pause, and the elections which are to follow must sternly admonish them that it is the determination of the people that the Constitution shall be obeyed as the "supreme law of the land," and interpreted, not by the sword, but by the judicial tribunals. If they listen to this instruction, and heed it, they will do well. If they do not they will be ground to powder. Appealing to violence, dethroning law, they may find "the poisoned chalice" commended to their own lips. Past crimes may be passed over, for as the nation moves on its march the dead may well be left to bury the dead; but a persistence in such high crime will not and ought not to go unpunished. The individuals who have been concerned in open and avowed violation of the Constitution would do well not to provoke a generous people too far.

The people having pronounced for a return to the reign of a written Constitution and laws, as interpreted by the judicial tribunals, it remains for every officer of the Government, whether of the Legislative or Executive branch, both soldiers and civilians, to give effect to this great principle on which the institutions of the country rest. In the place of expositions by military officers not versed in legal niceties, or even elementary principles, it is for the courts to say who are and who are not entitled to suffrage under the Constitution and laws.—Any election where this privilege is denied is a farce and a mockery; the people of the whole country will refuse to allow it to stand. And before any further elections in the South are held, it is fit and proper that the judicial tribunals should pronounce upon the rights of large bodies of persons now excluded upon a bare fiat of an unskilled individual, without opportunity of appeal or review by persons really competent to decide on the legality and constitutionality of this exclusion from suffrage. Action upon this basis is emphatically demanded by public opinion, by a just regard for law, and for those sacred principles of justice and liberty which are a necessary and inherent part of our institutions.

THE MARYLAND MILITIA.

The Maryland Militia wear gray. This is indicative of oligarchic tenuencies. The Austrians wear gray, and Austria is an effete despotism. Storm clouds are gray, and storms do a great deal of damage to American shipping. Gray, also, was the rebel hue, and it is proper, therefore, that some inquiry should be made as to whether the wearing of gray coatees and breeches is compatible with the continued existence of a republican form of government. Congress must look to it. Such statements as that, under congressional direction, the government of Maryland is half black and half white, and that, therefore, its militia uniform is appropriately a resultant gray, are not to be heeded for a moment. The loyal sentiment of the country is not to be trifled with in this matter. Its attention has lately been called to the subject of clothes, and it has ideas on that subject that must be heeded. Congress must look into this matter of treason as incipiently developed in the military tailoring of Maryland. But for his unfortunate obliquities valuable assistance might be received from Mr. Johnson, but, as it is, Congress must do its best and place A. J.'s denial of his professional acquirements to the account of impeachment. No truly loyal man will conceal his sartorial knowledge from his country in time of need.

The Maryland militia, too, have purchased guns. This is entirely inadmissible.—Equal rights are only calculated for the meridian of loyal men. There is no force in the plea of State defence. If these men loved their country they would rest for security on the broad ægis of American liberty. Congress must therefore investigate these purchases without delay. A committee for that purpose, with pay and mileage, must be at once appointed; and it would be in accordance with a moral idea if the most improved pieces were turned over to the executive of some loyal State.—The less perfect guns might be cast into a bronze statue of the American Carnot.

The Maryland Militia is officered, in part, by ex-rebels, and this must be seen to. The theory of returning allegiance in [illegible] loyal sentiment. There must be no compromise with traitors. Magnanimity is the synonym of national weakness, and fraternity is a moral idea whose nature here is black. The colored troops fought nobly, and to these saviours of the Union should the command of the Maryland militia be given. Let Congress look to the matter at once. The lite of the nation is in danger and the great popular heart beats responsive to its peril.—N. Y. World.

RAILROAD.

IMPORTANT TO

CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND NORFOLK,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways ☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

For rates and all further information, apply to any Freight Agent on the Line, or at the Great Through Freight Route.

THE PETERSBURG RAILROAD has been completed to the Steamers' Wharf on the Appomattox River, thereby avoiding all drayage through the city.

Connections and other arrangements have been made at Weldon with the Wilmington and Weldon and Raleigh and Gaston Railroads and their connections, viz: North Carolina Railroad to Charlotte, N. C.; Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad to Columbia, S. C.; Wilmington and Manchester and North Eastern Railroads to Charleston S. C.; Cheraw and Darlington Railroad to Cheraw, S. C.; and Western North Carolina railroad to Morganton, N. C., embracing the following named stations on the North Carolina roads:

Wilmington and Weldon Railroad—Halifax, Enfield, Whitaker's Battleboro', Joyner's, Wilson, Black Creek, Nahunta Goldsboro', Pikeville, Everettsville, Dudley, Mt. Olive, Faison, Bowden's, Warsaw, Magnolia, Rose Hill, Teachey's, Duplin Road, Leesburg, South Washington, Burgaw, Ashboro', Rocky Point, Marlboro', and North East.

Raleigh and Gaston Railroad—Gaston, Littleton, Macon, Warrenton, Ridgeway, Junction, Henderson, Kittrell's, Franklinton and Wake Forest.

North Carolina Railroad—Morrisville, Durham's, Hillsboro', Mebane's, Haw River, Graham, Company Shops, Gibson's, McLean's, Greensboro', Jamestown, High Point, Thomasville, Lexington, Salisbury, Salisbury, China Grove, Concord and Harrisburg.

Western North Carolina Railroad—Marion, Burnsville Asheville, Rutherfordton, Hendersonville, Marshall and Waynesville.

Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad—Columbia, S. C.

North Eastern Railroad—Charleston, S. C.

Cheraw and Darlington Railroad—To Cheraw, S. C.

Arrangements have also been made for car ring through freights at Petersburg and City Point, with the Powhatan Steamboat Company to Baltimore, No. 90 Light Street Wharf, J. W. Brandt, President; with Clyde's line of steamers to Philadelphia, W. P. Clyde, Agent, 14 S. Delaware street, and with Old Dominion Steamship Company for New York, shipping point Pier 4 North River, foot of Beech street, S. L. McCready, President, office 187 Greenwich street, corner of Dey.

Through freights marked via Petersburg to or from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and above named places in North and South Carolina, transported as cheap and expeditiously as by any other route.

Through bills lading will be given with the rates guaranteed at the depots and shipping points of the companies comprising this Great Through Route.

To insure the safety of freight, direct your consignors to mark all produce and merchandise care of Railroad Agent, Petersburg, who will forward them free of extra charge to their destination, North or South.

TICKETS! TICKETS!!

Remember that tickets for candidates for the Convention, and "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," must constitute but one ticket. This is according to the law. The names of the candidates for the Convention must be on one side of the ticket, and "for a Convention" or "against a Convention" must be on the other side. Candidates and voters must attend to this.

Orders for tickets to any amount, to this office, will be promptly attended to. The cash must accompany the orders. For 1,000 or 2,000 the price will be $2 per thousand. Any number greater than 2,000 will be $1,50 ly cost more. Orders should always be for double the number of votes expected to be cast. Many are lost, and our friends must not lose a vote for the want of tickets.

WHAT IS RADICALISM?

Noah Webster says that a Radical, in modern politics, means "a person who advocates a radical reform, or extreme measures in reformation." That is an exact definition of all who support the Radical or Republican party on principle.

The Radical party is dissatisfied with the government of our fathers. Its pioneers declared the Constitution of the United States to be "a covenant with the devil and a league with hell,"—its administration to be "diabolical and infamous."—They declared that "all men are created equal," and that, therefore, they are "equal" or must be made equal. To carry out this fallacy, they declared that the war power of the government having subdued the "rebellion," slavery must be abolished to effect this equality. Thousands, however, who were not radical reformers, favored the abolition of slavery as the best means to restore the Union and make it harmonious. Not so with the Radicals. The abolition of slavery was only the first step to the radical idea of equality, the homogeneousness of all persons in the government.

The next step was to denude the States of their original and inherent powers, which they deemed to be the great barrier to this favorite idea of equality or homogeneousness. This radical idea of reform, of equality, of homogeneousness, is the key-note of the Howard amendment—it is a two-edged sword against all the inherent and reserved rights of the States. Under the old government, every State had the reserved right to fix the status of its own citizens, to fix the conditions of citizenship, to say who shall vote or who shall hold office. The Howard amendment transfers this sacred power, that which is essential to the existence of States, from the States themselves to the general government and the Congress. Here is the true ground of our hostility to the Howard amendment. It places the entire control of the internal affairs of the States into the hands of the general government and of Congress. And this is Radicalism. Every advocate of the Howard amendment is a Radical, and an enemy to the present Constitutional government. The Howard amendment contains in it the principle of negro suffrage, negro equality, negro office holding, and it gives to Congress the power to say who shall be citizens of the States and who shall or shall not hold office in the States. So the Radicals understand it and do not hesitate to act upon it. Hence, when Tennessee adopted the Howard amendment, and Congress received its Senators and Representatives, she was told to go home and pass universal negro suffrage. Hence, when the Reconstruction Acts were passed, they enforced the dogma of universal negro suffrage. Hence, when the five Radical District Commanders were appointed, they understood, or were told, that the Reconstruction Acts meant negro suffrage, negro equality, negro office holding and negro homogeneousness with the white race. So, in the same way, when it was proposed in Congress to enforce universal negro suffrage on all the Northern States, the preamble set forth the fact that the Howard amendment had become a part of the Constitution by a two thirds vote of the loyal States, and, therefore, all the States must grant universal negro suffrage. Now, under whatever phase this idea of homogeneousness is held, it is Radicalism.

All the efforts of Radicalism, of whatever phase, are directed to this object. A portion, claiming themselves to be the party of "great moral ideas," are moderate, prudent, professedly contending for the Consititution, nevertheless managing to strangle and destroy it, root and branch, and it is all well, provided it is done constitutionally. Another faction, bolder and more violent, sets aside the Constitution entirely, and, breathing out threatening and wrath, will not stop at anything to accomplish the great idea of equality and a homogenous nation, however mongrel or debased. Agrarian in its inception, it becomes the great leveller of all classes. A party of progress, it is always downward—downward. And such is Radicalism.

VIRGINIA.—The Virginia Conservatives are at last aroused to the dangers of Radicalism. They have brought out strong tickets—the best men all over the State, who are not disfranchised. Most of the papers urge them to vote against the Convention. The impression is however that it will be called.

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will hold its annual session in Wilmington, in November.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR"

The unselfish philanthropy and disinterested patriotism which prompt a certain set of Northern men, who have lately settled in our midst, to lend us, in the present exigency, the benefit of their ripe parliamentary experience and profound political sagacity, cannot be too highly appreciated. Realizing the fact that the three Conventions which have been held in this State, since the original adoption of our present Constitution, were composed of mere tyros in legislation and small men generally, who knew but little of the requirements of the age in which they lived or of the real wants and interests of the people whom they ridiculously affected to represent, they are willing, with remarkable abnegation of personal interests, to show us how Constitutions ought to be made or amended,—a work in which Gaston, Stanly, Daniel, Ruffin, Meares, Swain, Morehead, Edwards, Graham, Moore, and such pigmies, utterly failed. Who can be mute in the expression of grateful acknowledgments, in view of such favors?

These gentlemen, by some unappreciative persons, have been irreverently styled "adventurers." Who will believe the aspersion? Which the subsidence of the waves of war left, just where they happened to cease rolling? Do they not, in point of fact, come to our midst, solely for the country's good, and with no thought of individual aggrandizement and advancement?—Besides, are they not, almost invariably, men, about whose brows, in the land of their nativity, political honors, legislative, executive and judicial, have clustered thickly? And are they not therefore particularly qualified, as the result of long and distinguished public service, to teach a heathen people the science of government and to map out the pathway of political enlightenment? We trow so, and we trust that we are properly thankful.

Among the gentlemen who have thus kindly consented to give us the advantage of their counsels and their labors, we recognize the name of one who has adorned political station in Ohio. Understanding fully the foolish prejudice, not to say wickedness, which have heretofore prompted, and still prompt, the people of that State to refuse the ballot to the colored man, who shall say that he is not the better prepared to assist in its establishment in North Carolina? And as this same unfounded and maudlin prejudice exists to the same extent in nearly every one of the Northern States, it is reasonable to presume that they have all come to our midst for the sake of building up a system of grand negro Republics in the South, and thereby convincing the people, from whom they have separated, how besotted they are in preferring a white man's government!

Give room, then, to these men of mark and patriotism. For

> "True patriots they—be it understood;
> They left their country, for their country's good!"

THE ELECTION IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—Gen. Canby has issued his Order for an election in South Carolina, under the "Reconstruction" Acts, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 19th. and 20th. prox.—the same days upon which it is to be held in this State.

Sec. 2. prescribes that it shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration, commencing fourteen days prior to the election, and giving reasonable public notice of time and place, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, striking off the names of such as are improperly registered, and adding the names of all such, possessing the necessary qualifications, as shall present themselves.

Sec. 5. provides that all judges and clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sec. 9. provides that violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the registrars or judges of elections to the post commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Sec. 10. provides that all bar rooms, saloons and other places for the sale of liquors by retail will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 18th. of November until six o'clock of the morning of the 21st. of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the sheriffs and other police officers of districts, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of the prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Sec. 11. provides that Military interference with elections, "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldier will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the commanders of posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Sec. 13. provides that the number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law, and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year 1860, and this number—one hundred and twenty-four—is apportioned to the representative districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters.

A meeting was held in Williamston on Tuesday last to advance the interests of the contemplated railroad from that point to Tarboro'. The sum of $70,000 has been subscribed for that purpose.

CANDIDATES FOR WAKE.

We hope that every Conservative man in the county will spread the information, and do all he can to have meetings of the Conservative Union men at every precinct in the county, on Saturday, the 26th. inst.—The object is to get the Conservatives of each precinct to express their choice for the State Convention, and to appoint a number of delegates who will meet in Convention, in this city, on the 31st. of October, to nominate county candidates for the Convention. We want a full expression of the voice of the Conservative men of the county as to whom they prefer to represent them in the State Convention. We are prepared to give our warmest support to any and every man who may be selected by the Conservatives of the county. We have no choice to offer—no names to suggest. We do not ask whether a man has been this or that. We only require that he shall be honest and capable, and that he is now an unwavering friend of the government of our fathers, of Constitutional liberty, and of a speedy and safe restoration of the harmony and Union of the States, in order to secure our support.

By the way, we will say that whoever the Conservatives may select must serve and do upon any and every man, they have them now more strongly than ever. Men who will desert the people now, need not call the people to their help when they want it. They will not answer. Men who shirk responsibility now, and stand aloof and talk in a whisper, will be remembered by the people hereafter. Every man must do his duty. Let the people of Wake make their own selections boldly,—let them run the men they want to run, and we will be with them. But woe to those who back out and will not openly take a stand at this time! Conservatives, arouse! and come to the rescue.

CANDIDATES FOR THE CONVENTION.

The election is to be held in this State for delegates to a Convention to form a new Constitution, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 19th. and 20th. of November next. It is of the first importance, that the Conservative Union men, the friends of Constitutional liberty, in this State, should bring out candidates in every County at once. Even in those Counties where the Conservatives feel that they will be overwhelmed, it is, nevertheless, important that they should select the very best men they can get, who are opposed to Radicalism, in order to secure a canvass. The people need light. This is true, especially, of the colored population. We have no idea of giving up the colored people to the control of the Radicals, to be misled by them. The Conservatives owe it to themselves, and to the peace of the country, and to the future welfare of the blacks, to discuss with the Radicals the points at issue, and to prevent the misleading of the colored people. We do not doubt, if the Conservatives were to run the right men in Craven, New Hanover, Wake, Edgecombe, Halifax, Warren, Granville, and other Counties, where the colored vote is large, and canvass fully, and discuss matters with the Radicals, they might defeat them, if not by out and out Conservatives, at least by running reliable moderate Republicans. Indeed, we are sure, by proper efforts, that Radicalism could be defeated in several of those Counties by Conservative men. Try it!

We call upon the men of North Carolina, the Conservative friends of the Union and of Constitutional liberty, to bestir themselves, to bring out the best men they can get, and let us have a canvass in every county. Moping inactivity will not do.—Men who stand back in this crisis need not look for the people to rally to them, in future, when they want help. Timidity, fear and indifference will not answer. Every man must be up and doing. Distranchisement is no excuse for standing back. But for the disfranchised men, the Radicals could do but little. Let every lover of his State, and of the peace and harmony of the Union, rally to the rescue. Bring out your best men everywhere, and let every county be canvassed!

WE HAVE, since the establishment of the Sentinel, been the unvarying and earnest advocates of every feasible plan for the promotion of Immigration. It is the true policy of the State to invite and encourage it. Our crippled system of labor and our undeveloped resources require the influx of capital and of honest, intelligent and skillful industry. Come from what nationality and quarter they may, our people will welcome these, and that heartily.

Where men settle in our midst, with the honest intention to share the fortunes of our people for weal or wo, and with an earnest desire to assist in the material recuperation and improvement of the State, we are prepared to hail them as fellow citizens, in the most comprehensive sense of the term,—entitled to participate equally with ourselves in all of private advantage or public honors that are to be commanded.

But we do object to mere squatters, men who come to subserve a selfish purpose,—which having accomplished, they will return to a more congenial clime. Such men, who come in the mere interests of self or party, to promote certain ends, which the large majority of our people believe are prejudicial to the true welfare of the State, are interlopers and intruders, who are among us, but not of us.

Of course, our remarks are not applicable to officers or soldiers of the army, who are here, because they are so ordered. They have no option in the premises. Neither have we.

COTTON UPWARDS.—We are glad to announce a rise in Cotton in New York, on yesterday. At noon, yesterday, it was 30 cents. The article must go up. With a government tax on it of 2½ cents per pound, and ruling less than 35 cents in New York, we see no remedy for our people from disaster. The article cannot be made at such prices, if laboring men who make it are to be clothed and fed.

For the Sentinel.

BEHIND THE CURTAIN.

SCENE 2—(Present X. P. G. and Font.)

P. G.—We are both philosophers.—Let us talk philosophy to-night, now we are alone. The Heir apparent is out. He must take some exercise, you know, and it really seems as if he is not willing to be seen by any. He is a timid youth, Font, a very modest and good young man.

F.—Talk philosophy, eh? I'm ready, Gus. But, though there may be philosophically a general resemblance between us, there is a specific difference, as there is between all the leaves of the forest. You are a political philosopher, only. My philosophy discourses "de omni scibili et quibusdam aliis."

X. P. G.—Don't toss your Latin at me, Font—because I don't know it. We'll talk if you please in our mother tongue—in the true vernacular. I know you are great upon tumble bugs and animated nature generally—only call things by their right names to night, and then we can understand each other. But first tell me how you got down from that tree where Zebulon left you—eh?

F.—Down!—Why, I tumbled down.

X. P. G.—Exactly—tumbled down—that's my text to night. Why did'nt you tumble up?

F.—Wait a bit, Gus. How long did the Ostrich keep his head in the sand? And did he really think, all that time that he was concealed, and his ridiculous aspect? ha! ha!

X. P. G.—Enough of that, Font! an' then lovest me. We both cut ridiculous figures. But that is neither here nor there.

F.—Well—a truce then with folly. And now let us be philosophical, sure enough.

X. P. G.—So you tumbled down from the tree, Font, did you ever study the art of sinking? or what old Falstaff called "alacrity at sinking?"

F.—The art of plunging, you mean—or tumbling—I have Gus. It was called by the Ancients Peri Bathos.

X. P. G.—Be done with that Hebrew Greek to me. I can as well understand Choctaw Indian. Call it the art of sinking, or plunging, or of tumbling—in plain English.

F.—Go on, old philosopher.

X. P. G.—Well, in my younger days, I tried to soar.

F.—Go on, young Icarus! Did the wax melt? And so did you tumble down?

X. P. G.—Font! None of your nonsense. I was nobly ambitious and tried to achieve "position." I scrambled up, and up. It was always an up hill business—a false step would throw me back; but I was resolute. "Excelsior" was my motto. Did you ever read that poem, Font?

F.—Yes, and your Ode to Calhoun, too; ha! ha!

X. P. G.—How did you like it, Font?

F.—Which?

X. P. G.—My Ode to Calhoun. Was not it a grand Lyric?

F.—Well enough, considering.

X. P. G.—Considering what, Font?

F.—Never mind now. We are talking of philosophy to-night.

X. P. G.—Well—Font! that was one of my false steps. I fell back awfully. But I made it up afterwards—for I cursed him blue, sometimes.

F.—Yes—and sometimes you didn't. But to your philosophy.

X. P. G.—So be it. I got tired of climbing. Did not you find it hard work climbing that tree, Font, when Zeb was after you with his Andalusian spear?

F.—Confound you! What has Zeb Vance got to do with philosophy?

X. P. G.—Well, not much, I suppose.—But the rascal bothers me so, and is such a thorn in my side, that I cannot push him out of my thoughts. He will be the death of me yet. I fear I shall die of Zebulon, oh—oh—!

F.—Dry up, old Fel! What will the rusty rebels say if they catch you sniffling in this way? Be a philosopher, my old boy! Follow my illustrious example. Catch me a whining!

X. P. G.—I will Font—I will. Was Isaac Newton a philosopher?

F.—Something of the sort I believe—but he did not know much about bug-ology—more's the pity.

X. P. G.—Now answer me this. Why did he fix the laws of gravitation so absurdly, that everything had a tendency downwards—and falling upwards is totally agin nature?

F.—Well, really I don't know; reckon he couldn't help it.

X. P. G.—Just so. I tried for several years to roll myself upwards, and it was no go. So I yielded to gravitation, and turned tail to—and here I am all covered with mud and glory! Getting up was a hard business; getting down was easy enough—and accordin' to nature. Tumble up indeed? No it can't be did—but to tumble down is jest as easy as falling off of a log. It is experimental gravitation.

F.—Facilis descensus Averni—and so forth; Sed revocare gradum—and so forth—(Virgil.)

X. P. G.—Care o' what? Who cares for any thing in these days? I don't care a —— what Virgil, nor any other old rusty rebel, says.

F.—Well, don't put yourself in a passion. He only meant to say that when you are once down and all over in the mud, it is a hard job to get up again, and shake yourself clean. "Hoc opus, hic labor est."

X. P. G.—There it is again, with your internal gibberish! Why can't you talk sense and philosophy in plain Saxon English? You will run me crazy. You are absolutely intolerable. I shall be as crack-brained as yourself. Heaven help me, Font! and preserve my seven senses!

F.—Softly! softly! my excitable friend! You have not seven senses to lose. But let me ask you, how can we lift ourselves up, after wallowing in such a mire as we have plunged ourselves?

X. P. G.—How? Easy as falling off a log. Did not the Colonel here promise, at our blessed Convention, that he would take us on his Atlantean shoulders and bear us to Washington City, and bellow and bellow for us until we should all be washed whiter than snow? And did'nt he say that they would regenerate us, if for no better reason, to "get shut" of these bulls of Bashan?

F.—Yes; but he did not promise that for poor me! What will become of me?

X. P. G.—Be a good boy, Font. Plunge in deeper and deeper. Wallow all over as we have, and your reward will be sure.

F.—But suppose the Colonel's shoulders should not be broad enough to carry us all safe through—what then?

X. P. G.—Oh ye of little faith! Is not the great Leviathan of the Fourth Ward standing with his loins girt? He will strap us all to his huge shoulders and tote us triumphantly along Pennsylvania Avenue, march up the Capitol Hill and into the Capitol Halls—and won't he bellow? And won't they be glad enough to "get shut" of Doctor Bowels?

F.—I am not lacking in faith; but it really seems to me that it would tax the powers of the Great Eastern itself to keep us afloat with this huge African mill-stone around our necks.

X. P. G.—Font! you are a lilly-livered, poke-easy loon, at best. Face your adversaries like a man. Defy them to their teeth. Do as I do; carry a stiff upper lip and a high head.

P.—Yes, you do wear a precious stiff upper lip! and you hold up your head like a—sheep!

X. P. G.—Look here, Font! This is not the first time that I have been provoked by your insolence. You are an infernal born, and a "regular sucker." You have hung on my skirts till I am tired of it. I have suckled you long enough. Go, and work among your own tumble-bugs, and make a living by pushing and pulling.

P.—Get out, Gus! I was only joking. But—honor bright—don't we all work pretty much in that fashion, just at present—pushing and pulling interchangeably? Is our vocation very odoriferous?

X. P. G.—No, Font! It ain't.

(Exeunt ambo.)

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In looking over a catalogue of the University of Virginia, I have been struck with the fact that the common notion that this institution has grown great, at the expense of the University of North Carolina, is altogether incorrect.

In the year 1866-'67, from October 1st. to July 29, there were entered in the University of Virginia, from North Carolina, only 24 students in all, of whom 10 were either Medical or Law students, leaving only 14 for the Academic Departments. Probably quite as many as these might have been counted before the war.

I think the States, other than North Carolina, have most largely patronized From those States there entered the University of Virginia only 51 students, of whom 18 were in the Departments of Law and Medicine.

Again—it was published in all our newspapers, that there were in the University of Virginia 490 students, leaving our people in despair at the paucity of numbers in our own University. But of these, 207 were Medical or Law students, while there were in the school of Greek only 89, in Latin 183, Mathematics 190, Natural Philosophy 113, &c.

Now remember that desolated as Virginia was by the ravages of contending armies, her General Assembly appropriates every year $17,000 for the support of their University, while howls of rage were raised because our General Assembly gave only $7,000 for one year, and let every North Carolinian, who is accustomed to decry our time honored University, and laud the Institutions of other States, hang his head with shame!

I am informed that there are at "Gen Lee's College" only 8 or 10 students from N. C.

The above facts evidently show that the poverty of the land is one cause for the few numbers at the University.

WAKE.

THE SHOOTING CASE IN BALTIMORE.

The Baltimore papers give full particulars of the shooting affair referred to in our telegram.

From the Gazette.

Seldom has so intense an excitement been witnessed in this city as that which was created last evening by the murder of a boy on Howard street by armed negroes. The details, which are as yet imperfect, will be found in another column. Great as is the outrage, violent and hasty action is most to be deprecated. Measures will of course be at once taken by the authorities to bring the perpetrators to account, and orders will no doubt be promptly issued that will prevent the repetition of such an act.

Drilling with loaded muskets and full cartridge boxes is very unusual under any circumstances, and it is a special privilege, which certainly should not be allowed negroes even in day time. It is a question to be maturely considered whether they should be allowed to drill with muskets at all. Another such occurrence as this would very probably bring about a conflict in which many innocent would suffer with the guilty.

From the Sun.

Last night shortly before 9 o'clock the centre of the city was considerably excited by the report that a riot was in progress in north Howard street between a colored military organization and a number of white people. Crowds were at once seen running up Baltimore street to Howard, and thence to the neighborhood of Franklin street, where the armory of the Lincoln Zouaves, a colored military body, is located.

The facts are that while a large number of armed colored men were marching up Howard street—the pavement on either side being densely crowded by colored people of both sexes—when in the vicinity of Howard and Mulberry streets some ten or twelve shots were fired by the colored men in line, one shot taking fatal effect on a white lad, aged about eighteen years, named Charles A. Eilesmeyer, standing on the pavement. The ball struck the unfortunate youth over the right nipple, passing through both lungs, striking the back bone, coming out under the left arm, and killing him almost instantly.

On the firing of the shots the people on the street fled in all directions, whilst the colored organization marched on to the front of the armory of the Lincoln Zouaves, on Howard street, north of Franklin, where they were halted. In a short time thereafter a dense crowd of white men had gathered on Howard street between Saratoga and Mulberry, but in the mean time the colored organization proceeded on its march and passed into the county, on the northwest limits, not having returned at a late hour last night. The police authorities were promptly notified, and the whole police force were at once ordered to the spot, under the immediate command of Marshal Farlow—the police commissioners also being present.

The jury rendered the following verdict: "Death occasioned by a musket ball fired from the rear rank of a negro military company, supposed to be the Butler Guards, and that it was totally without cause or provocation."

During the inquest the excitement continued among the large crowd on the street. The prompt and energetic efforts of the police authorities, however, had its effect, and by 11 o'clock the neighborhood had returned to its wonted quiet. It is expected that to-day a thorough investigation of the causes of the unfortunate affair will be had; but meanwhile the gross impropriety of this parading of the streets at night by organizations of any character, with loaded arms, cannot be questioned, and if it be tolerated, such ready means of taking life, in the hands of indiscreet parties, are sure to lead to such results as the above, as often from imaginary as from real causes.

A CANDID CONFESSION.

The New York Times truthfully says:

"There is much less of mere prejudice against the negro in the South than among certain classes in the North. Even before the abolition of slavery, negroes were sure of better personal treatment from Southern people than Northern."

The New York Commercial says: "Hereafter, we shall have to be careful not only who are our Presidents, but also who are their wives. The tail feathers of the eagle must not be bedraggled."

A subscriber of the Crescent, writing from Columbus, Colorado county, Texas, says the freedmen have "done bully in registering, but in cotton picking they are very trifling."

CONSERVATIVES OF WAKE, RALLY!

We are authorized to state, after consultation with many Conservatives, that meetings will be called in each county precinct, to assemble on Saturday next, the 26th. inst., at the usual place of election, to suggest the names of candidates for the State Convention, and also to appoint delegates to a county Convention, to be held at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, the 31st. of October, at 12 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the State Convention and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

All Conservative Union men are urged to be present at the precinct meetings, and to be prompt to meet at the county Convention to nominate candidates.

Remember the election is only thirty days off. MANY CONSERVATIVES.

RALLY, CONSERVATIVES!—We are requested to announce that the Conservative Union men of Johnston County will hold a meeting in Smithfield, on Saturday the 26th, inst., (October) to nominate candidates for the Convention. Let all true Union Conservative men be present.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND OF CIVIL LIBERTY—RALLY!!!—Let us meet at the Court House on Saturday night next to organize for the coming election.

The election is at hand! The enemy is organized and confident! He advocates a proscriptive policy, hostile to the interests and future prosperity of North Carolina!

Come one! Come all!! Without regard to former party connections—all who stand firmly by the Constitution of their country, and are lovers of civil liberty!

Let us be up and doing! Let us with one united effort defeat the schemes for our ruin, and save our government, and liberty for ourselves and our children!

Come one! Come all!!!

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Our thanks are due to J. M. Stone, Esq., of Nash, for a club of subscribers to the Sentinel.

WAR IN EUROPE IMMINENT.

The Emperor Napoleon has officially announced his intention to intervene in the affairs of Italy with a view to uphold the temporal power of the Pope. The Monitteur accuses Italy of a violation of the law of nations, and declares that its government is stimulating and aiding the republican revolutions. This means war—immediate war between Italy and France, and, as a consequence, there is a panic on the Bourse, and, indeed, all the money markets of Europe. Even consols are seriously depressed, and there has been an alarming drain of gold from the Bank of England.

If bayonets are crossed between French and Italian troops on the Tiber, what will result? Will Prussia stand by and see her late ally struck down, without protest? It does not seem possible. The sensitiveness of all the money markets shows that everyone expects this action of France to result in a continental war. As between France and Italy alone, the war would be "short, sharp, and decisive." The latter country is no match for the former without extraneous help. If the temporal power of the Papacy is to go down, it is in the eternal fitness of things that it should be marked by such a convulsion as a continental war would now be in Europe.—N. Y. World

St. Domingo, with all its horrors; Jamaica, with all its desolation; the South American Republics, with their everlasting revolutions—all the result of elevating an inferior race to hold the balance of political power—afford no instruction to our Radical revolutionists. They will destroy the country rather than give up an impracticable theory or the power they hold. This is the prospect before us, and unless the people of the North loudly demand the suppression of these modern Jacobins, we shall certainly be involved in terrible scenes of bloodshed, a vast military establishment, enormous expenses, a deficient Treasury, and the risk of a military dictatorship.—N. Y. Herald.

At a recent reception of Americans at the Russian court the Emperor had on a white cloth cap, and white cloth vest and pantaloons, all of questionable fineness. The Empress and her daughter wore simple suits of toulard, with a blue spot in it, blue trimmings, low crowned straw hats trimmed with blue velvet, linen collars, clerical neckties of muslin, blue sashes, flesh-colored gloves, parasols—lady readers will take due notice.

By far the great part of the novelties in ladies' dress really have their origin in Berlin, with the skillful, ingenious and fertile artiste of the Bazaar. The Parisian governors of style take up some of these and invent others, and by the facilties which they possess, establish them throughout the civilized world. The demi monde doubtless adopt them as well as the haut-monde; but it is more to the patronage of the latter than the former that their universal currency is due.

Our advice is that every white man shall make it his especial business to gain over at least one colored vote, not by bribery and corruption, or any other undue means, but by honest and unexceptionable means—by showing how it is to the interest of the colored people to vote the Conservative ticket, and by opening their eyes to the dangers into which the mean white adventurers would lead them.

Lose no time, but set about this business at once.—Richmond Whig.

SANTA ANNA.—Private advices from Santa Anna leave the impression that he will be allowed to hold his property and depart with no severer punishment than official exile or banishment. Taken as he was from an American vessel, and beyond Mexican territory, it is among the strange events of the times that Mexico dare retain him so long as a prisoner.—N. Y. Express.

In estimating the cotton crop of 1867, a Macon writer estimates the number of bales as follows: Texas, 270,000; Georgia, 225,000; Alabama, 200,000; Louisiana, 200,000; Mississippi, 225,000; Arkansas, 125,000; Tennessee, 100,000 South Carolina, 150,000; North Carolina, 100,000; other sources, 125,000. Total, 1,630,000.—This is thought by some as an over estimate.

At Paris, one leader of the ton not long ago appeared in a superb black dress glittering with jet, the only coloring visible being in the hair, which was that delicate shade between canary and straw color.—Voluminous chignon, airy frisures on the forehead, and long ringlets at the back, shone out in rich contrast with the velvety tones of the costume.

A WHOPPING HAUL.—The Spirit of Jefferson states that the fish "trap" near Mr. Manning's residence on the Shenandoah produced as much as 1,000 eels in one night last week! And it wasn't a good night for eels, either!—Lynchburg News.

Sixty days ago Cheyenne, Dakotah, was a howling wilderness; now it has a Mayor and Common Council, publishes ordinances regulating city life, and has a newspaper, rum shops, and various other incidents of civilization. Thus we go!

We wish that some fellow would set fire to the rascal's shirt tail and then chase him in a high wind.—Prentice on Hunnicutt.

The Presbytery of Fayetteville meets in Goldsboro', on the 26th., and the Synod of North Carolina, in Newbern, on the 30th. inst.

The young men of Tarboro' have formed a Council of the "Friends of Temperance," and it is said to be in a flourishing condition.

The Boston Transcript (Radical) says it is now proposed to add a new plank to the Republican platform—namely, the purchase of Mrs. Lincoln's wardrobe.

CAPTURED PROPERTY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21, P. M.

The restoration of the picture, mentioned a few days ago, by the Post Office Department, has led to a ventilation of facts, regarding the disposition of booty from the army during the march to the sea.

The military orders preventing its transmission by express, it was placed in the mail, which, being overburdened, dropped it in the Dead Letter office. Since it was transferred to the Freedman's Bureau and sold at auction. Only one picture, on account of its rare beauty, was returned.

The articles filled over a dozen large boxes and the inventory covered over 100 pages of foolscap. This inventory embraces the description of articles, whence they sent the name of the sender and person to whom it was addressed. The articles themselves were disposed of nearly three years ago.

ROSADALIS.

READ THE FOLLOWING

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

W. A. DUGGAN, M. D.,
E. BARNES, M. D.
H. W. KING, M. D.

Wilson, N. C., February 4th, 1866.

We hereby certify that we regard Dr. Lawrence's Compound Extract of Rosadalis as a Reliable Alterative, &c.

Wilson, N. C., May 19, 1867.

Edgecombe County, N. C., May 24, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis will cure the very worst cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, Sr.
Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, MD., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic, which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found Her appetite returning, and by the time she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Case!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last two years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousands of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December last, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad letter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was entirely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1867.

RODES' BRIGADE CHARGE AT SEVEN PINES

I.

Down by the valley, 'mid thunder and lightning,
Down by the valley, 'mid jettings of light,
Down by the deep crimsoned valley of Richmond,
The twenty-five hundred moved on to the fight!
Onward, still onward, to the portals of glory,
To the unvisited chambers, yet never dismayed;
Down by the deep crimsoned valley of Richmond,
Marched the bold warriors of Rodes' brigade.

II.

See ye the fires and flashings still leaping,
Hear ye the pelting and beating of storm,
See ye the banners of proud Alabama—
In front of her columns move steadily on;
Hear ye the music that gladdens each comrade—
As it floats through the air amid the torrent of sounds,
Hear ye booming adown the red valley,
Carter unbidden his swarthy old hounds?

III.

Twelfth Mississippi, I saw your brave columns
Rush through the channels of living and dead!
Twelfth Alabama, why weep your old war horse,
He died as he wished, in the gear at your head?
Seven Pines, ye will tell on the pages of glory
How the blood of the South ebbed away 'neath the shade;
How the lads of Virginia fought in the red valley,
And fell in the columns of Rodes' brigade.

IV.

Fathers and mothers, ye weep for your jewels,
Sisters, ye weep for your brothers in vain,
Maidens, ye weep for your sunny-eyed lovers,
Weep, for they never will come back again!
Weep ye, but know what a halo of glory
Encircles each chamber of death newly made,
And know ye that victory, the shrine of the mighty,
Stands forth on the banners of Rodes' brigade.

V.

Daughters of Southland, come bring ye bright flowers,
Weave ye a chaplet for the brow of the brave;
Bring ye some emblem of freedom and victory,
Bring ye some emblem of death and the grave;
Bring ye some scotto befitting a hero,
Bring ye exotics that never will fade,
Come to the dark crimsoned valley of Richmond,
And crown the young chieftain who led his brigade.

The following is related by a Boston paper: "Col. R. spent the winter in Lexington, Ky. A friend of his went to visit him. 'Come Sunday,' says the Colonel, 'I want you to hearken to our church bells here. There's four of 'em. Each sounds out its own denominational call.'"

There's the Episcopal. That is a heavy, deep toned, sonorous bell. Now you see if that don't ring out—'Postolic succession! 'Postolic succession!

Then the old Presbyterian—that's most as deep sounding, and that says: Eternal dam-na-tion! Eternal dam-na-tion!

The Baptist is quicker—a sharp, snappy bell—and that says, rapid: Come up and be dipped! Come up and be dipped! Come up and be dipped!

But the Methodist—that's a crowner; it talks right out: Room for all! Room for all! Room for all!

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $265,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, viz our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

WM. C. NICHOLAS, M. D. C. J. FERHAM, M. D.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th, and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Dental Hospital, commencing October 19th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10. Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. S. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper

H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 16 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the confidence of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD B. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 9 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

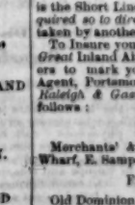
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the insurance water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the state of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United states, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to congress, if then in session, and if not in session then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

OF NORTH CAROLINA,

BRANCH OFFICE, RALEIGH, N. C.

PRINCIPAL OFFICE, GREENSBORO, N. C.

Persons having Agricultural and Mineral Lands, Water Powers, Town Lots and all kinds of Real Estate for sale, are respectfully invited to place them in our hands for that purpose, as our facilities for bringing purchasers from Northern States and placing property prominently before the public, through our advertisements, and also through our agencies and correspondents in the North and West, are unsurpassed. We are now WAITING FOR LANDS TO BE PLACED IN OUR HANDS FOR SALE, in order to sell to a party of substantial farmers from the North.

Our terms are as follows: Persons placing property in the hands of the Guilford Land Agency of North Carolina, will be charged FIVE per cent. commission on all amounts realized. Five dollars entrance fee must be paid when the property is placed in our hands.

Persons at a distance wishing to place property in our hands should give us an accurate description of the same. If Agricultural Lands, they should specify the soil, number of acres of cleared and timbered lands, the kind of timber, what is raised on the land, what kind of improvements are on the premises, how far from Railroad and from County-seat; whether it is well watered, &c. If MINERAL LANDS, they should state what kind of Minerals the Lands contain, &c., always sending a good fair specimen of the ore. It would also be advisable to send a sketch of the land to us.
